Dear Sir I received your letter which gave me great satisfaction to hear from you but sorry to hear that you want money. So bad for you have sent to a bad place, for money is hard to get here in this place wheat is low here and that is the main thing to fetch money. I have built a small stable and dug a well that has cost me low. I am poor you know, the reason that I did not write sooner was that I did not know how to write. I have got part of the money and have borrowed some if you will come the first of April and make me the deed I will pay you two hundred dollars you will think this too hard. I will make you a coat worth 15 dollars which is within 15 dollars of your offer. This will make 335 dollars for the house remember the poor be cause I am poor I have to pay 10 per cent for the money that I borrow to make out a sum I can not do no more than this this Spring
